The Georgia Department of Transportation (GDOT) plans, constructs, and maintains Georgia's network of highways and bridges, while providing planning and financial support for other transportation systems ranging from airports to mass transit and bicycle trails. An agency of the state government, GDOT is overseen by a state transportation board that includes representatives from each of Georgia's congressional districts. Based in the state office complex in downtown Atlanta, GDOT also operates seven district offices, in Cartersville, Chamblee, Gainesville, Jesup, Tennille, Thomaston, and Tifton. The department had approximately 4,150 employees and a budget of $2.2 billion in fiscal year 2013.

own primarily for highway construction and maintenance, GDOT adened its agenda to include other forms of transportation, as well transportation innovations as NaviGATOR, an "intelligent ritation system" developed to minimize congestion and improve on urban expressways. The department also provides administrative : to the Georgia Tollway Authority, the Georgia Rail Passenger ty, and the Georgia Southwest Rail Excursion Authority.
